PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Head Traffic Supervisor Ms. Roseann Casazza addressed the School Committee members and Administrators regarding her members' disappointment in finding out that their jobs may be cut/eliminated from the FY 2011 budget from reading the Arlington Advocate or watching the January 12th School Committee meeting. Dr. Bodie did acknowledge the oversight of not notifying the traffic supervisors before the announcement, apologized, and expressed appreciation of the value of each traffic supervisor.

The chair pointed out artwork displayed in the School Committee room from the Thompson School students.

MATHEMATICS CURRICULUM K-12

Ms. Nadine Solomon and Mr. James Brown, Director of Mathematics, discussed mathematics in Arlington, including various topics such as data on assessments and professional development tools, that included examples of think tanks and study groups. The pathway for math students in the middle school and high school were explained, as well as the various math exam options for students in honor classes. One challenge that the department faces is an increase in the number of students from around the world and associate language issues. Other challenges are to raise MCAS scores in the middle school, adapt to the changing technology needs, and fiscal restraints of replacing older text books.

The committee members expressed appreciation for the presentation from Nadine and Jim and discussed the importance of the assessments and ways to continue to measure and compare our MCAS scores with surrounding towns and to continue to improve and meet AYP. They referenced the standards-based report as a means to show whether or not students are mastering the math standards.

BUDGET UPDATE

*Diane Johnson, Chief Financial Officer, Dr. Kathleen Bodie, Interim Superintendent and Mark Ryder, Director of Special Education, presented a budget update.
